Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect your Personally Identifiable Information (PII). PII refers to any information that can identify, contact, or locate an individual, either on its own or when combined with other data, as defined under applicable U.S. privacy and information security laws. Please read this policy carefully to understand how we handle your personal information when you use our website, software, applications, and services.

Information We Collect

When you interact with our website, software, application, or services ("Services"), we may collect information that can identify you ("Personal Data") as well as information that cannot be linked to you ("Non-Personal Data").

Information You Provide

When you create an account or use our Services, you may provide us with the following information:

- Your email address, username, contact details, and language preferences.
- If you sign in using a third-party account such as Google or Facebook, we may request your permission to access basic profile information, including your name and email address. You may revoke this access at any time through your third-party account settings.
- If you purchase a paid service, you will be required to provide payment information to complete the transaction. When using PayPal as your payment method, your payment details, including your credit card information, are submitted directly to PayPal and are governed by PayPal's Privacy Policy.

User Content

We collect any content you create, upload, submit, or store while using our Services. This may include text, documents, files, images, and other materials you choose to provide.

Information Collected Automatically

When you use our Services, certain information is collected automatically, including:

Location Information

We may collect the approximate geographic location of your device using your Internet Protocol (IP) address or similar identifiers.

Log Information

Our servers automatically record technical information whenever you access our Services. This may include your IP address, browser type and version, operating system, browser settings, access dates and times, cookie information, and language preferences.

Usage Information

We collect information about how you interact with our website, software, and applications. This includes the pages you visit, the features you use, and the links you click. We may also receive analytics data from trusted third-party providers to better understand user behavior and improve our Services.

Device Information

We collect information about the devices you use, including hardware model, operating system, browser type, software version, and unique device identifiers.

Cookies

We use cookies and similar technologies to enhance your experience, analyze website traffic, and improve our Services. Additional information can be found in our Cookie Policy.

When We Collect Information

We collect information whenever you:

- Register for an account.
- Complete forms on our website.
- Subscribe to newsletters.
- Purchase products or services.
- Contact us through live chat.
- Submit a support request.
- Provide information through any feature available on our website or application.

How We Use Your Information

We use your information to provide and improve our Services, fulfill our contractual obligations, and support our legitimate business interests. Specifically, we may use your information to:

- Manage your account and provide customer support.
- Respond to inquiries, troubleshoot issues, and verify your identity when necessary.
- Notify you about product updates, service announcements, security alerts, and important account information.
- Process payments and complete transactions efficiently.
- Personalize your experience by providing relevant features and content.
- Analyze usage trends, monitor system performance, and develop new features.
- Improve the functionality, security, and reliability of our website, software, applications, and services.
- Detect, investigate, and prevent fraud, unauthorized access, and misuse of our Services.
- Generate aggregated statistical reports regarding the use of our Services.
- Display and synchronize your uploaded content across your account to ensure it remains accessible whenever you use our Services.
- Send promotional emails, newsletters, and special offers. You may unsubscribe from marketing communications at any time. Users located in the European Economic Area (EEA) will receive promotional communications only after providing their explicit consent.

Data Sharing and Disclosure

Does APP Share My Information?

APP respects your privacy and only shares your Personal Data under specific circumstances, including:

- Service Providers: We work with trusted third-party service providers who help us operate, maintain, and improve our Services. These providers may assist with website hosting, customer support, email communications, payment processing, analytics, and other business operations. They may access Personal Data only as necessary to perform their services and must process it according to our instructions.
- With Your Consent: We may share your Personal Data when you have provided explicit permission for us to do so.
- Legal Compliance and Protection: We may disclose your Personal Data if we believe it is necessary to:
 - Enforce our Terms of Service.
 - Investigate suspected violations, fraud, or illegal activities.
 - Protect the rights, property, or safety of APP, our users, or the public.
 - Comply with applicable laws, regulations, court orders, or lawful requests from government authorities.
- Business Transfers: If APP undergoes a merger, acquisition, corporate restructuring, bankruptcy, sale of assets, or similar business transaction, your Personal Data may be transferred to the acquiring entity, subject to the protections described in this Privacy Policy.
- Non-Personal Data: We may share aggregated or anonymized information that cannot identify you with affiliates, business partners, or the public for reporting, research, analytics, or other legitimate business purposes.

Does APP Sell My Personal Data?

No. APP does not sell, rent, or trade your Personal Data to third parties.

Cookies and Similar Technologies

APP uses cookies and similar technologies, including web beacons and tracking pixels, to improve your browsing experience, remember your preferences, analyze website traffic, and enhance the performance of our Services.

Cookies help us:

- Remember items in your shopping cart.
- Save your preferences and account settings.
- Understand how visitors use our website.
- Improve website functionality and user experience.
- Display relevant advertisements for APP products and services.

We do not share your Personal Data with third parties for the purpose of allowing them to serve advertisements to you.

For more information, please refer to our Cookie Policy.

Managing Cookies

Most web browsers allow you to manage your cookie preferences. You can choose to block or delete cookies through your browser settings or receive a notification whenever a cookie is being sent. Please note that disabling cookies may affect the functionality of certain features on our website.

Third-Party Disclosure

APP does not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer your Personally Identifiable Information (PII) to outside parties, except as described in this Privacy Policy.

Third-Party Links

Our website may include links to third-party websites within blog articles, help resources, or this Privacy Policy for your convenience and additional information.

Please note that we do not control or endorse the content, privacy practices, or security of external websites. We encourage you to review the privacy policies of any third-party websites before providing personal information or using their services.

Google Advertising

APP may use Google AdSense or other Google advertising services on our website, software, applications, or Services.

Google uses cookies, including the DART cookie, to display advertisements based on users' previous visits to our website and other websites across the internet.

For more information about Google's advertising practices, please review Google's Advertising Policies.

You can manage or opt out of personalized advertising by visiting Google's Ad Settings page.

Analytics and Marketing

APP may use analytics and marketing tools provided by Google and other trusted third parties, including Google Analytics and DoubleClick cookies.

These technologies help us:

- Measure website traffic and user engagement.
- Understand how users interact with advertisements.
- Improve our products, services, and marketing efforts.
- Deliver more relevant content and advertisements.

Information collected through these technologies is generally aggregated and used for analytical and performance purposes.

Advertising Preferences

You can manage your advertising preferences or opt out of personalized advertising by using Google's Ad Settings or other industry-supported opt-out tools, such as the Network Advertising Initiative. You may also install the Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on to prevent Google Analytics from collecting information about your visits.

Managing or Deleting Cookies

Most modern web browsers provide options to delete, block, or manage cookies through their privacy or security settings.

If you use browsers such as Google Chrome, Microsoft Edge, Mozilla Firefox, Safari, Internet Explorer, or other supported browsers, please refer to your browser's official help documentation for instructions on managing cookies.

Please note that disabling cookies may limit certain features or functionality of our website and Services.
