User reviews mentioning possible fraud or deception (4)

I wish I could give less than 1 star

1/5 stars · 2026-10-20 · ConnivinASH · US App Store

This is a horrible video ai generator. This is not what's advertised in the description. I am quickly canceling my subscription. Disappointing doesn't even do justice for the bait and switch I feel is done with this app. Find a different video generator. I was just attempting to do a funny video for my kids. Not with this app.

Matched terms: subscription, cancel

One star.

1/5 stars · 2026-10-19 · AidCer · US App Store

They have the "refund request" button within their settings disabled when you attempt to click it. But it just so happens, everything else in the settings works completely fine? I wanted a refund of my almost 13 dollars! For one video that wasn't even ten seconds, and you have to pay for new submissions? Super misleading and pricing range is not fair no matter what is said 1 out of 5.

Matched terms: misleading, refund

Insensitive people

1/5 stars · 2026-10-19 · arw19g · US App Store

I accidentally purchased a subscription with this app for almost $12. I immediately requested a refund as my financial situation is extremely tight right now. They only gave me a prorated refund for half the price. I then appealed it once more, and their 'final' decision was that I did not meet the conditions for a full refund, even upon my explanation. Shameful. I never even opened the app.

Matched terms: refund, subscription

2 stars for effort

2/5 stars · 2026-10-04 · YouTube account lost · US App Store

As soon as I went into the app, it asks me for a subscription and then when i go and try make a ai video i can't because i cant use the features, also you need to add first person pov type ai videos because those ones are more engaging like ring doorbell camera or security camera or you being the pov and stuff like that this needs to be fixed

Matched terms: subscription
